

Overseas Exchange Experience Sharing Meeting

On the afternoon of August 27, 2019, there was a sharing meeting about Chen Liyue's experience of applying for overseas exchange in the second conference room of the National Science Library, Chinese Academy of Sciences. Liao Yu, president of the student union, chaired the meeting. This sharing meeting mainly included five parts: personal profile, time planning for overseas exchange application, task arrangement, matters needing attention and on-site FAQ.

At the sharing meeting, Chen Liyue introduced the time node of her application for exchange, and recommended a reasonable time planning according to her own experience. She described the necessary conditions for applying in detail, such as how to choose and communicate with the foreign tutor, the necessary ability of language, funding application for the international cooperation project of CAS.

In the part of on-site FAQ, Chen Liyue answered to the matters needing attention for students to apply for overseas exchange in the future, including how to make better use of the government funded programs to study abroad and how to better prepare for the language test. After meeting, she was also patient to answer all of the questions from participating students.

In the end, they took a photo and gave the best wishes to Chen Liyue.
