

Professor Xiao Guohua, male, 42 years old, director of the department of regional development consulting, Chengdu Documentation and Information Center of the Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS). Prof. Xiao was graduated from Sichuan University with a master degree, and now is a PhD candidate of Nanjing University. His main research interests include S&T policy and decision-making consultation, industrial technology competitive intelligence, intellectual property and technology transfer, information platform construction and management.

As the director or executive director of research projects, Prof. Xiao has undertaken more than 20 scientific research projects of provincial and ministerial level or above, including the National Innovation Fund project of the Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST), Spark Program of the MOST, Special Fund project of Literature and Intelligence Ability Construction of the CAS, STS Special Fund project of Intellectual Property of the CAS, "Western light" talent project of the CAS, Special Fund project of the cooperation between the CAS and Tibet, Special Fund project of Technology Transfer Platform of Sichuan province, Special Fund projects of key industrial technology innovation of Sichuan province, etc.

Prof. Xiao has issued more than 40 papers at home and abroad. As a visiting scholar sent by the CAS, he researched and communicated in the field of intellectual property and technology transfer at Cornell University, and was affirmed in writing by the vice provost of Cornell University. Furthermore, Prof. Xiao worked in Tibet Institute of Science and Technology Information as a deputy director for more than 2 years, responding the CAS' call of aiding Tibet. He worked diligently, made much progress, and was awarded the first prize of deputy work of the CAS.

Email: xiaogh@clas.ac.cn